WILL FIGHT TO FINISH.

D. F. Randolph, of Second avenue who some time since announced himself as a candidate for the position of mayor of Daytona, has qualified for the election by securing the signatures of twenty-five electors, as required by ordinance, and will continue in the race for the mayorship to a finish.

Mr. Randolph was not nominated in the caucus held at the Armory Monday night, but feels that that was not a fair and popular choice, as owing to the excitement prevailing over the murder in the afternoon many of his supporters failed to appear at the meeting.

Stunningly Attired.

(By United Press.)

EDINBURG, Jan. 29.—With a packed courtroom and most stunningly dressed, Mrs. Mabel Atherton took the stand this morning to clear herself of the charge of subornduct with Stirling in the trial of divorce of Jack Stirling and wife. Mrs Atherton protested that her relations with Stirling were always honorable. She declared she tried to act as peacemaker and she warmly denied her own guilt-y testimony.

E. F. Sullivan arrived Wednesday from Starke to assist his brother in his N. Beach street barber shop.

MANY HAVE NOT REGISTERED.

Many Who Registered For General Election Have Failed To Qualify On City Books.

A LETTER FROM SUPERVISOR.

Editor Daily News:—I wish to call the attention of the citizens of Daytona to the fact that registration in the city registration books is necessary to participate in the coming city election.

Many who registered there in the county books last fall seem to be under the impression that they are duly registered for the city election. The tax collector has furnished me the names of some twenty-five who have recently paid their poll taxes whose names are not on the list furnished me by the city clerk and consequently can not vote and will probably think they have been wronged by being left off the list.

Respectfully yours,
JOHN R. WETHERELL,
Supervisor of Registration.

Quietly Wedded.

Robert J. Velvington, of Kingston, and Miss Cora E. Ingleb, of Holly Hill, were united in marriage Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock by Notary Public A. K. Brokaw in the parlors of the Bingham & Maley Company.

The young couple departed on the 7:00 p. m. train for De-and and De-Leon Springs and on their return will make their home in Kingston.

WILMAN'S OPERA HOUSE IS FAR AHEAD NOW—BIG VOTE

In Bush & Safford Piano Contest —Kingston School Now In Second.

The inevitable has occurred. Wilmans opera house has made a jump that is unparalled in the Bush & Safford contest so far. In the last count the vote for the opera house alone was over 136,000. Somebody may overtake the Ivanhoe, but they will have to get a hurry on them soon. The Kingston school looks now like the only possible rival for the first place position outside of Daytona. With this count that school passes the Seabreeze High School, going into second place. There was nothing of special interest outside of Daytona.

In Daytona the high school had a slightly larger vote than the Halifax Rifles but the "boys in blue" are determined to get that piano, and everybody will have to hustle. There were no new developments in Daytona.

One of the pianos is on exhibition in the M. B. Allison store, on the corner of South Beach street and Orange avenue and every one is urged to step into the store and try the instrument which is an excellent one. It is planned sometime in the near future to give a recital in this store, at which time all interested may hear the beautiful tone of the piano. The other piano will also be placed on exhibition in some other Beach street store soon.

One thing must be spoken of. Please don't put banana peels and shredded wheat biscuits in the ballot boxes. Corn cobs are all right if they will go in the slot, but pickles, cookies, fruit peels, water lilies, grocery bills, and the like make the votes hard to handle and count.

IN INTEREST OF LEAGUE.

N. I. Alliger, representing the International Automobile League is in the city in the interest of the big league of 16,000 members. This league is rapidly increasing its membership.

It was organized to promote the interest of the automobile world.

It is Mr. Alliger's business here to arrange for official hotels and garages for the League and to secure and give out such information as seems advisable for the guidance and benefit of the organization.

The League is concerned in road-building and gives all possible encouragement to such enterprises.

Soaked Fifty Dollars.

J. F. Clark, who for some months conducted a fish market on Cottage avenue, filled up on grape wine Thursday, and proceeded to make things lively for the people on Baker street and vicinity. He was arrested by Marshal Myers and Officer Tinkham, and in Mayor's court this morning was fined $50 for being drunk and disorderly.

STARTS TO DAYTONA AND DIES EN ROUTE.

Instead of Entertaining Her Brother, Mrs. J. B. Parkinson Goes To His Funeral.

John Sathorn, of North Dakota, was due in Daytona this week for a visit to his sister, Mrs. John B. Parkinson. He was enroute but a sudden illness interrupted his journey and he stopped at West Baden, Indiana.

He grew worse rapidly and died last night. In response to a telegram announcing his death Mrs. John B. Parkinson left this morning for West Baden and will accompany the body home for burial.

Mrs. Parkinson has the sympathy of her many friends in this new grief which comes with shocking suddenness.

HOLLY HILL

Sunday last being the fourth Sunday Rev. Mr. Rutter conducted services as usual in the school house.

Saturday Mrs H. T. Stewart and daughter Ruth and the boy Howard spent the day with Mrs Merkel. Mrs. Stewart and Miss Kingston drove over in the afternoon and all enjoyed a social cup of tea with Mrs A. B Carter.

Mrs. Jeanette S. Gerdine of Jacksonville, Grand Matron Order Eastern Star was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. B Carter on Friday of last week.

Mr. Chas. S. Harris reported a drive in Mr. Fitzgerald's new auto Sunday when they went to DeLand for the day.

Mr. Geo. Harris has been appointed tax collector for Holly Hill.

Owing to such a continuance of sunshine and bright sunshine, on fruit trees are, many of them, in full bloom. Last week on Quattlebaum's grove a ripe plum and a ripe peach was gathered, our oldest inhabitant cannot recall such an unusual displayon the part of nature.

The yacht "Coy Qua, of Boston with owner and party on board, was here Wednesday.

A carpenter is busy at the Halifax River Yacht Club, lowering the window sill Bay windows.

Fred S. Allen, of the St. Augustine Press Boat Club, was in the city Thursday in his yacht the "Thea Baldwin."

W. W. Hughes, of Urbana, Ohio, father of Miss Ella Hughes, pianist and entertainer at the Ridgewood, has arrived in the city for a several weeks' stay. He is a guest of the New York cottage.

A NARROW ESCAPE FOR DOGS AND MEN.

Spirited Old Gray Does a Circus Stunt Not On The Bills.

Fritz Thayer, the Rice-Jap war correspondent, ex-cavalryman and playwright figured in a little swing around yesterday in front of the Journal office that afforded thrills for everybody who happened to be in that vicinity.

Fritz and a friend of 225 assemblages from the other side, were over driving in an old gray, which proved to have plenty of ginger. They were accompanied by $1,000 worth of canines, three a number, a $500 bull and a couple of mangy mismated bunches of rags. This aggregation was about to depart for the other side—Seabreeze, not heaven—and as Mr. Thayer, who was last to get in the luggy, was settling down in the narrow space left for him he most accidentally have pinched a protruding canital appendage, at any rate, a piercing bark startled the fiery gray, which made a lunge, throwing Mr. Thayer out upon the ground. The horse tried to run away, but Thayer held on to the lines like grim death, and the horse after a swing around a great circle, dragging Thayer, came to a standstill. It was an exhibition of nerve and daring.

Mrs. Ellenwood and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jean Ellenwood, had just driven up by the Journal office and were getting out. Mrs. Ellenwood, fearful to run behind a tree, and as the tree was within the circle described by the horse, stepped a clever turn or two round the big live oak, and Mrs. Ellenwood, Jr., found herself jumping from the frying pan.

The public will be glad to learn that the dogs came off without a scratch.

AWAKENED INTEREST.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the recital services now in progress at the Methodist church.

Reverend Harris is a very enthusiastic, interesting speaker and is attracting large audiences. The membership seems to be awakened and are rallying to the help of the leaders and all are expecting a meeting quite out of the ordinary for Daytona.

Bomb Explosion in Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 29.—One man was killed and a dozen injured in a bomb explosion, which wrecked the home of Acroff, a rich merchant, of whom the anarchists demanded 50,000 rubles. The merchant was injured.

Storm Warning Up.

A storm warning was sent out this morning at 10:45 from Washington to Mobile, Pensacola, Apalachicola, Carabelle, Cedar Key, Rochelle, Tampa and Jacksonville. West to northwest winds, becoming high this afternoon, with falling temperature.

GRAND JURY WILL INVESTIGATE.

Chas. Warren Bound Over Without Bail To Await Findings Of That Body.

WILFUL MURDER THE CHARGE.

After delving into the testimony for over five hours, the preliminary hearing of Charles Warren, the colored man charged with the murder of Anna Gregory, a teacher in the colored kindergarten was concluded Thursday afternoon about four o'clock, and Warren was bound over without bail to await the action of the grand jury next April.

Twenty two State's witnesses were examined and many pieces of the case were brought out. The examination in behalf of the State was conducted by Jurgler Titus, while Attorney Cary D. Landis, of the DeLand law firm of Landis & Flint, conducted the cross examination, assisted by T. E. Tunnicliff, of Fitzgerald & Oates. The defense introduced no testimony.

According to the law in Florida a defendant is given a preliminary and if a prima facia case is made out he is bound over to await the action of the grand jury and should that body return an indictment the case is sent to the Circuit Court for trial, if it be an offense punishable by death, or to the Criminal Court, where one exists, if it be an offense punishable by a lesser penalty than death.

The plan of defense has not yet been outlined.

CAVE RECEIVES LARGE ORDER.

Val Cave, proprietor of the Cave cigar factory on North Beach street, received yesterday an order from the Porto Rico Export Co., for 25,000 cigars and the statement that they would follow it up with some larger orders in the near future. Mr. Cave says he will take care of the order although he had informed the company that he would not be in shape to handle their business until later in the season, owing to the late start and a rapidly growing local trade.

Noted Actor Suicided.

(By United Press.)

LONDON, Jan. 29.—The death of George Scott, one of the best known theatrical men in Europe was found this morning in his room at the Theatre Royal, Covent Garden with a bullet wounded in his head. It is believed that he suicided. He had but recently been appointed manager of Drurylane's Adelphi Theatre.

LITERARY SESSION IS HELD.

Platform Transformed Into Beautiful Woods; Gipsy Tents Pitched Therein.

FINE PROGRAM AND GOOD MUSIC.

The Palmetto Club met again Thursday. The afternoon was in charge of the Literature Department. The chairman, Mrs. Graham Thompson, presided in a very graceful and charming manner. The platform was transformed into a beautiful woods, in which the Bungalow Gypsies, imported for the afternoon, had pitched their tent.

The old Queen, something over a century old, was still active in basket making, tending the cauldron and keeping her children and grand children in order. She had had much to do with the drama of Europe, as all the crowned heads had at one time or another consulted her, but at present had turned the future telling over to her beautiful daughter, Monica, who invited any of the young ladies to consult her. Only one was venturesome enough, and became delighted with what the fates held in store for her. The beautiful maidens, small children, and even the dog and cats seemed well pleased with their Daytona camp.

The music was in charge of Mrs. Ruston. The Palmetto Club Orchestra made its first appearance for the season, and was warmly welcomed.

The first number on the program was a Hungarian dance—Klosering.

Mrs. Graham Thompson gave a few brief notes on the department's summer's work, and introduced Mrs. Dora E. Dayton, who gave a short paper on "Article of Worth."

The orchestra next played "Intrigue" —Silvo—Bila, and Mrs. C. B. Seaman told something of Austro-Hungarian life giving interesting descriptions of homes and customs.

Mrs. Ludlow delighted the audience by singing a Gipsy song, and responded to a persistent encore, with "The Wanderer," by Shubert.

Mrs. Mayne S. Smith, a charming Cygsie, gave a delightful account of Gypsy origin and wanderings through the world, especially of their life in Hungary.

The orchestra closed the program with a very beautiful number—"Canto-ment."

Mrs. T. E. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Charles Rogers were the charming young hostesses to the afternoon.

Mrs. Thompson gave notice there would be an important meeting of the Department Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The afternoon chord with a short business meeting.

EARTHQUAKE REFUGEES CAMPED IN MESSINA.

Messina, where the great earthquake caused the most havoc, is now a city of tents. Tent days for industrious people ensued in the ruin on the sites of their ruined dwellings, and many died of starvation amid the wreckage. This picture was taken two days after the quake and shows how the people huddled together in the streets, fearing to take shelter near the toppling walls of the buildings.

A SPECULATION ON POSSIBILITIES

The outposts of DeLand as come upon ...the DeLand-Daytona road are far ...inviting, but when you reach the ...limits proper there is a sudden and ...agreeable shift of scene and some artistic ...and rather pretentious cottages, some ...finished and some in process of construction, give an air both of solidity and of progress. DeLand possesses one very desirable asset which many Florida cities ...that gives it a distinctive charm ...The surface is undulating, and the swelling ...surfaces here and there enhance its ...beauty; without this the city would be ...far less attractive.

Aside from this natural beauty the ...her attractions are artificial. They ...have a wealth of thrifty trees, mostly ...water oaks, but they look stiff and formal, standing like columns of sentinels ...guarding the city. The rigid adherence ...to lines, angles and measured distances ...is not pleasing to the writer and it is a question whether the average visitor ...is not similarly impressed. They planned ...many streets of sufficient width to ...admit a central row of trees, but these ...trees are set with the mathematical precision characteristic of all their tree planting and the effect is artificial and stiff.

DeLand is the home of Florida's best known institution of learning, Stetson University, and there is an excellent group of commodious buildings sufficiently large it would seem to anticipate the needs of the school for some years to come. It being Sunday the writer had no opportunity to look within and note the interior finish, furnishing and equipment. As a whole the ...buildings, architectural plans seem simple, and ...viewed from without they present a somewhat plain and comfortable appearance.

The appearance of the business section of the city was a little disappointing it being typical of hundreds of Southern towns less pretentious. There were no ...noticeable departures from the ordinary ...in the district supposed to represent the ...business part.

The town looked to be about three-fourths the size of Daytona, not counting Silver Beach, Daytona Beach, Seabreeze, Kingston, Midway and Wayman, separated from Daytona by the ...latter or by imaginary lines only. It has a prosperous air, as reflected by ...both paint and new buildings in many ...parts of the city. The revival of the ...citrus industry is contributing in no small degree to this end.

In one singular respect it contrasts ...rather strikingly with Daytona. Daytona is a little naughty, not easily shocked, tolerant of fads, freaks and foibles, ...is the last company, high-stepping ...girl. DeLand goes enmasse to the sanctuary; Daytona is apt to read Zola, Balzac and Tolstoi; DeLand, the St. James version; strolling down Ridgewood like

GRAND JURY WILL INVESTIGATE.

Chas. Warren Bound Over Without Bail To Await Findings Of That Body.

WILFUL MURDER THE CHARGE.

After delving into the testimony for over five hours, the preliminary hearing of Charles Warren, the colored man charged with the murder of Anna Geiger, a teacher in the colored kindergarten was concluded Thursday afternoon about four o'clock, and Warren was bound over without bail to await the action of the grand jury next April.

Twenty two State's witnesses were examined and many phases of the case were brought out The examination on behalf of the State was conducted by Justice Titus, while Attorney Cary D. Landis, of the DeLand law firm of Landis & Fish, conducted the cross examination, assisted by T. E Titzgerald, of Fitzgerald & Oates The defense introduced no testimony.

According to the law in Florida a defendant is given a preliminary and if a prima facia case is made out he is bound over to await the action of the grand jury and should that body return an indictment the case is sent to the Circuit Court for trial, if it be an offense punishable by death, or to the Criminal Court, where one exists, if it be an offense punishable by a lesser penalty than death.

The plan of defense has not yet been outlined.

CAVE RECEIVES LARGE ORDER.

Vet Cave, proprietor of the Cave cigar factory on North Beach street, received yesterday an order from the Porto Rico Export Co., for 22,000 cigars and the statment that they would follow it up with some larger orders in the near future. Mr. Cave says he will take care of the order although he had informed the company that he would not be in shape to handle their business until later in the season, owing to his late start and a rapidly growing local trade.

Noted Actor Suicided.

(By United Press.)

LONDON, Jan. 29—The body of George Scott, one of the best known theatrical men in Europe was found dead today in his room at the Tavistock Hotel, Convent Gardens with a bullet wound in his head. It is believed that he suicided. He had but recently been appointed manager of Frohman's Aldrich Theatre.

LITERARY SESSION IS HELD.

Platform Transformed Into Beautiful Woods; Gipsy Tents Pitched Therein.

FINE PROGRAM AND GOOD MUSIC.

The Palmetto Club met again Thursday. The afternoon was in charge of the Literature Department. The chairman, Mrs. Graham Thompson, presided in a very graceful and charming manner. The platform was transformed into a beautiful woods, in which the Hungarian Gypsies, imported for the afternoon, had pitched their tent.

The old Queen, something over a century old, was still active in basket-making, tending the cauldron and keeping her children and grand children in order. She had had much to do with the destinies of Europe, as all the crowned heads had at one time or another consulted her, but at present had turned the fortune-telling over to her beautiful daughter, Monica, who invited any of the young ladies to consult her. Only one was venturesome enough, and became delighted with what the fates held in store for her. The beautiful maidens, small children and even the dog and cats seemed well pleased with their Daytona camp.

The music was in charge of Mrs. Huston. The Palmetto Club Orchestra made its first appearance for the season, and was warmly welcomed.

The first number on the program was a Hungarian dance—Kieserling.

Mrs. Graham Thompson gave a few brief notes on the department's summer's work, and introduced Mrs. Dora E Dayton, who gave a short paper on "Artists at Work."

The orchestra next played "Tustspiel"—Kiler—Bila, and Mrs. G. B. Seaman told something of Austro-Hungarian life giving interesting discriptions of homes and customs.

Mrs. Ludlow delighted the audience by singing a Gypsy song, and responded to a persistent encore, with "The Wanderer," by Shubert

Mrs. Mayme S. Smith, a charming Gypsie, gave a delightful account of their origin and wanderings through the world, especially of their life in Hungary.

The orchestra closed the program with a very beautiful number—"Cantasane."

Mrs. T. E. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Clarence Rogers were the charming young hostesses of the afternoon.

Mrs Thompson gave notice there would be an important meeting of the department Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The afternoon closed with a short business meeting.

Movements on the political checkerboard come in the way of surprises now and the boys are kept guessing.

EARTHQUAKE REFUGEES CAMPED IN MESSINA.

Messina, where the great earthquake caused the most havoc, is now a city of huts. For days the homeless people camped in the rain on the sites of their ruined dwellings, and many died of starvation amid the wreckage. This picture was taken two days after the quake and shows how the people huddled together in the streets, fearing to take shelter near the toppling walls of the buildings.

Seabreeze News

SEABREEZE, Jan. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ellis, who arrived from Hiram a few days ago, have taken part of Miss Ott's cottage and will spend the remainder of the season here.

Mr. Gamble is further improving his home on the Halifax by a new wall on the east extension, the upper part of which will be finished with cypress rail and spindles.

Mr. Wells yesterday made the return trip from Ormond on the new peninsula road. He succeeded in getting through without injury to his car, but found the road very rough.

Ralph Lapp, of No. Nine, who has work with one of Daytona's grocery stores, is occupying at J. R. Tomlinson's here on Peninsula avenue.

Billy Davis, Jack Sanding and Bob Hines are putting in their off school hours crab fishing and find a ready market for their catches among the summer boarders.

Miss Allaway entertained a number of her young lady friends at her home on Halifax avenue yesterday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. Fancy needlework, conversation and light refreshments passed the time very pleasantly. The guests of the evening were: Misses Randell, Pierson, Hatch, Burgman, Leland and Stone.

Nat C. Goodwin, Sr., is under treatment at the Seabreeze Sanitarium.

Mrs. Myrtle S. Holt has purchased a Seabreeze lot on Pinewood avenue which is being cleared for the erection of a cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Jones and granddaughter, Miss Grace Jones, of Bordentown, N. J., are occupying their winter home, Pine Crest, on Pinewood avenue.

This ideal weather the beach is the play ground for all Seabreeze and Daytona Beach. The waders and the bathers, and the shell gatherers, and the children and their nurses, and the middle aged and the old, and there some portion of the day, and the sea gulls, and sandpipers, and even the queer eyed crabs come to take them for granted as part of the day's program.

A remarkable instrument is that used for the purpose of measuring the sense of touch. This device consists of a series of little disks, each three millimeters in diameter, suspended by fine delicate thread from wooden handles the last being stuck into holes round a block. The lightest disk is taken out and brought into contact with the skin of the subject, he having his eyes closed. If nothing is felt a heavier disk is employed, and so on until the pressure becomes noticeable. The disks weigh from one to twenty milligrams, and with their aid it has been proved that the sense of touch in the average person is conveyed by two milligrams on the forehead, temple and back of the forearm, five for the nose and the chin and fifteen for the inner surface of the fingers.—New York Tribune.

Doings at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, Jan. 29.—The Sea Breeze Club met at the home of Mrs. C. A. Freeman Wednesday afternoon in the largest attendance of the season. An afternoon with Tennyson was very much enjoyed. Mrs. J. Ralph Wilcox read a sketch of the life of the author. Mrs. Ronald recited Lady Clare Vere de Vere. Mrs. Bigelow read The Palace of Art. Mrs. Reed read The Charge of the Light Brigade. Mrs. Waterson read Elspah. Dainty refreshments were served during the social hour. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. S. Bigelow, Halifax avenue, Seabreeze. Edgar Allen Poe will be the study of the afternoon.

The Actor's Child League, whose headquarters are at Daytona, entertained at the Seaside Inn Wednesday evening. They had a big house some hundred including cottagers, and the entertainment was highly spoken of.

"I understand the Newells are living double," remarked the spinster boarder. "Some people take her part, and some others side with him."

"And I suppose," growled the scarred bachelor at the pedal extremity of the mahogany, "there are a few second people who mind their own business."—Chicago News.

Seabreeze News

SEABREEZE, Jan. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ellis, who arrived from Hiram a few days ago, have taken part of Miss Ott's cottage and will spend the remainder of the season here.

Mr. Gamble is further improving his home on the Halifax by a stone wall on the east extension, the upper part of which will be finished with cypress rail and spindles.

Mr. Wells yesterday made the return trip from Ormond on the new peninsula road. He succeeded in getting through without injury to his car, but found the road very rough.

Ralph Lapp, of No. Nine, who has work with one of Daytona's grocery stores, is stopping at J. R. Tomlinson's home on Pinewood avenue.

Billie Davis, Jack Sonntag and Robt. Hines are putting in their off school hours crab fishing and find a ready market for their catches among the numerous fishermen.

Miss Alloway entertained a number of her young lady friends at her home on Halifax avenue yesterday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. Fancy needlework, conversation and light refreshments passed the time very pleasantly. The guests of the evening were: Misses Randall, Pierson, Hatch, Burgman, Leland and Stone.

Nat C. Goodwin, Sr., is under treatment at the Seabreeze Sanitorium.

Mrs Myrtle M. Holt has purchased a Seabreeze lot on Pinewood avenue which is being cleard for the erection of a cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Jobes and granddaughter, Miss Grace Jobes, of Bordentown, N. J, are occupying their winter home, Pine Crest, on Pinewood avenue.

This ideal weather the beach is the play ground for all Seabreeze and Daytona Beach. The waders and the bathers, and the shell gatherers, and the children and their nurses, and the middle aged and the aged are all there, some portion of the day, and the sea gulls, and sandpipers, and even the queer eyed crabs come to take them for granted as part of the day's program.

A remarkable instrument is that used for the purpose of measuring the sense of touch. This device consists of a series of little disks, each three millimeters in diameter, suspended by fine, delicate thread from wooden handles, the last being stuck into holes round a block. The lightest disk is taken out and brought into contact with the skin of the subject, he having his eyes closed. If nothing is felt a heavier disk is employed, and so on until the pressure becomes noticeable. The disks weigh from one to twenty milligrams, and with their aid it has been proved that the sense of touch in the average person is conveyed by two milligrams on the forehead, temple and back of the forearm, five for the nose and the chin and fifteen for the inner surface of the fingers.—New York Tribune.

Doings at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, Jan. 29—The San Souci Club met at the home of Mrs. F. A. Freeman Wednesday afternoon in the largest attendance of the season. An afternoon with Tennyson was very much enjoyed. Mrs. J. Ralph Wilcox read a sketch of the life of the author. Mrs. Ronald recited Lady Clare Vere de Vere. Mrs. Bigelow read The Palace of Art. Mrs. Reed read The Charge of the Light Brigade. Mrs. Waterson read Rizpah. Dainty refreshments were served during the social hour. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs A S. Bigelow, Halifax avenue, Seabreeze. Edgar Allen Poe will be the study of the afternoon.

Percy Freeman and wife were down from Ormond visiting his mother yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Deer and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Roberts have taken Mrs. Allen's cottage, on Peninsula Drive.

Quite a boat load of church members and young folks from the two towns attended revival services at the M. E. Church, Daytona, last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddy, of Albany, N. Y., are among the recent arrivals. They have taken rooms at the C. C. Bishop cottage, Seabreeze avenue.

Mrs. O'Dell and friend, of Ohio, after spending several days in town, left for Orlando and other interior points.

The Ladies' Aid, which held their regular session yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E C. Hibbard definitely decided to hold their Bazaar, February 18th.

Miss Williams, Miss Thomas and Miss Brewster, a pleasant party from the White House, and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Sweet, made the trip to New Smyrna yesterday, and had their dinner at Alba Court.

Mrs. Field and Mrs. Sanders, of Chicago, are season guests at the Surf Crest.

The Seaside Inn is entertaining the following party from Niagara Falls: W. A. Helms, Roy Williams and wife, Miss Browne; also Mr. and Mrs H. M. Anthers, Miss Anthers, Toronto, Canada.

The Actor's Child League, whose headquarters are at Daytona, entertained at the Seaside Inn Wednesday evening. They had a big house some hundred including cottagers, and the entertainment was highly spoken of.

"I understand the Neweds are having trouble," remarked the spinster boarder. "Some people take her part, and some others side with him."

"And I suppose," growled the scanty haired bachelor at the pedal extremity of the mahogany, "there are a few eccentric people who mind their own business."—Chicago News.

The Modern Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with dusk and cool and many-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that butterfly old white headed ju lious perch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk ch.-g-ging upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spirk and span, their bearers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid an liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent way, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with cloth of gold effects, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has enrobed as an artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms, see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see th climbing vines runn ng riot in the trees, see the cryptogamous father which puts a feathered on the great oaks and the stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of the Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the article cottage. The owners of these charming villas have in every instance set to work and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them and as the architecture of our section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and other natural beauty from one another. There are nonsensible rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes that invite attention; within are many models of convenience, and the finish and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed it is the interior arrangement and the artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that give a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as wonder number four.

Streets and Pavements the Best and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways interesting, miles upon miles of driveways as good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or evil-eulogist one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "gee haw" there is a bunny ready to come and and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and paw into the most engaging fortune, many glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where

Smiling spring its earliest visit paid
And parting summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another household here a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hid den in a jungle of tall cans. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds fill in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and spontaneity to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits. Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, proficiency and all desirable qualities would truly astonish.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine from Kalamazoo or from Timbuktoo and you will be "shown." Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring week. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2 horsepower up to a 200 horsepower, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit and when you on the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for sale for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture. It's before. It is drawing other thousands and is doing them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy veranda's looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican poach a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see th climbing vines runn ng riot in the trees; see the cryptogamons forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and the stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes that rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finish and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed it is the interior arrangement and the artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that give a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as wonder number four.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or eve callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where

Smiling spring its earliest visit paid
And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variagated hues predominate, another household have a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, prolificacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or from Timbuktoo and you will be "shown." Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horsepower up to a 200-horsepower, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

DELAND AS SEEN BY STRANGERS.

as not your ear will catch a snatch of "ragtime," as DeLand classic strains are heard; at Daytona club houses they speculate on who will capture the Dewar trophy; in DeLand they quote excerpts from Paul's letter to the Ephesians. Here a young Roman might urge: Jeunesse oblige, I'm dying to sample the nectar of your lips," or, "Elizabeth, why put this thing off longer; let's go to the parson!" In DeLand it would be, "My dear Miss Smithers, for a footnight or more a matter of the gravest import has absorbed my meditations and stirred the profoundest depths of my being; it is with emotions unfathomable—" here Judithea interrupts with, "Dr. Wahls, I perceive the purport of your importunation; for this once desist, and reveal yourself to me free abruptly at some future period."

If the reader has followed to this paragraph and hasn't ended he needs a period to make him smile, and here it is:

Cruel Spring.

The talk in the village hostelry had been on the subject of vegetable freaks, but at length it veered round to pets.

"Did ever you keep a goat, Billy?" inquired a gray whiskered gentleman in a corner seat.

"Did I ever?" answered the little man addressed with subtle fruitfulness. "I bought one last Christmas which nearly brought me to the workus. Eat anything, from tins o' blackin' to fleetwood, that goat would. Lucky thing for me the spring killed it."

"I didn't know the seasons affected goats," observed the gray whiskered gentleman.

"Who's talkin' about seasons?" came the reply. "It was the spring of our alarm clock what 'e made a meal of one day as done it!"—London Express.

Balm For Fat Man.

Every picture of the devil in human form represents him as very tall, very slender and elegantly dressed. The fat man need all the comfort they can get and may find some in this.—Atchison Globe.

Appreciated the Beautiful.

That it is not always well to put on one's doubtful garments when one goes to visit the poor is the moral of a story told in an English magazine recently. There were two philanthropists, according to the tale, one a professional and the other an amateur. The professional had arranged to take the amateur to a gathering of slum dwellers in the worst part of London. At the appointed hour the amateur, who happens to be a duchess and a great beauty, appeared at the house of her friend, a dazzling apparition in court dress, tiara and jewels. "Oh, my dear," gasped the professional, falling helplessly into the nearest chair, "don't you know that we are going to one of the lowest and most squalid slums? I can't possibly let you will bring any of that back with you!" But the beauty only laughed. "That's all right," she said. "I quite understand you. But poor people love beautiful things. Their children especially are fascinated with fine dresses and feathers. Just wait and you will see!" And the professional did see. Those poor, half starved, half naked slum dwellers had eyes for no one but the dazzling young beauty who had done them the infinite honor of coming to see them in her most beautiful frock and jewels.

Got His Wish.

At the height of their nightly quarrel the other day Mrs. Blank flicked back a sob and said spasmodically:

"I was reading one of your old letters today, James, and you said in it that you would rather live in a cottage furnished with me than in Ritz by your self."

"Well, I got the cottage, Mrs. Blank, furnished."

DELAND AS SEEN BY STRANGERS.

as not your ear will catch a snatch of "ragtime;" at DeLand classic strains are heard; at Daytona club houses they speculate on who will capture the Dewar trophy; in DeLand they quote excerpts from Paul's letter to the Ephesians. Here a young Romeo might say: "Jeannette, I'm dying to sample the nectar of your lips," or, "Elizabeth, why put this thing off longer; let's go to the parson?" In DeLand it would be, "My dear Miss Judithea, for a fortnight or more a matter of the gravest import has absorbed my meditations and stirred the profoundest depths of my being; it is with emotions unfathomable—" here Judithea interrupts with, "Dr. Waldo, I perceive the purport of your importunation: for this once desist, and reveal yourself to me less abruptly at some future period."

If the reader has followed to this paragraph and hasn't smiled he needs a period to make him smile, and here it is.

Cruel Spring.

The talk in the village hostelry had been on the subject of vegetable freaks, but at length it veered round to goats.

"Did ever you keep a goat, Bill?" inquired a gray whiskered gentleman in a corner seat.

"Did I ever!" answered the little man addressed with rustic familiarity. "I bought one last Christmas what nearly brought me to the work'us. Eat anythin'g, from tins o' blackin' to flatirons, that goat would. Lucky thing for me the spring killed it."

"I didn't know the seasons affected goats," observed the gray whiskered gentleman.

"Who's talkin' about seasons?" came the reply. "It was the spring of our alarm clock what 'e made a meal of one day as done it!"—London Express.

Balm For Fat Men.

Every picture of the devil in human form represents him as very tall, very slender and elegantly dressed. The fat men need all the comfort they can get and may find some in this.—Atchison Globe.

Appreciated the Beautiful.

That it is not always well to put on one's dowdiest garments when one goes to visit the poor is the moral of a story told in an English magazine recently. There were two philanthropists, according to the tale, one a professional and the other an amateur. The professional had arranged to take the amateur to a gathering of slum dwellers in the east end of London. At the appointed hour the amateur, who happens to be a duchess and a great beauty, appeared at the house of her friend, a dazzling apparition in court dress, tiara and jewels. "Oh, my dear," gasped the professional, falling helplessly into the nearest chair, "don't you know that we are going to one of the lowest and most squalid slums? I can't promise that you will bring any of that back with you." But the beauty only laughed. "That's all right," she said. "I quite understand you. But poor people love beautiful things. Their children especially are captivated with fine dresses and feathers. Just wait and you will see!" And the professional did see. Those poor, half starved, half naked slum dwellers had eyes for no one but the dazzling young beauty who had done them the infinite honor of coming to see them in her most beautiful frock and jewels.

Got His Wish.

At the height of their nightly quarrel the other day Mrs. Blank choked back a sob and said reproachfully:

"I was reading one of your old letters today, James, and you said in it that you would rather live in endless torment with me than in bliss by yourself."

"Well, I got my wish," Blank growled.

John McGahie, of Brooklyn, came in from the South bridge last night at nine o'clock with a string of fine trout of two to three pounds each. He caught them with phantoms and reported the river alive with trout.

J. F. Williams and Lyle Lyman made an automobile trip to DeLand, Orlando and numerous other points, leaving Daytona Tuesday morning and returning Thursday morning. They spent Wednesday night in DeLand.

D. H. Rogers, of Alfred, N. Y., and Mrs. J. H. Van Duzer, also of New York, brother and sister of D. D. Rogers, are visiting that gentleman and his family on North Beach street. Mr. Rogers has not been in Daytona for twenty-five years.

Martin Dawson, of Ypsilante, Mich., is a guest of The Glenn, on North Beach street. Mr. Dawson, who is ex-mayor of Ypsilante and a prominent politician of that section of country, is south for the benefit of his health, and finds Daytona one of the prettiest places he has ever seen and a delightful climate in which to recuperate.
